

Complaint form

Please note that this form is to be used only for complaints made under the Commercial Radio Code of Practice (Code).

Content on this station is regulated by the Code. The Code covers areas such as material not suitable for broadcast, news and current affairs, Australian music, live hosted entertainment and the promotion of gambling during live sports.

The Code provides a process through which a listener may make a formal complaint to a station asserting a breach of the Code. The complaints process is set out in section 10 of the Code.

A complainant who is not satisfied with the response it receives from the station may refer the matter to the Australian Communications and Media Authority for resolution.

Under the Code, complaints relating to advertising, other than complaints under section 4 (identifiability of advertising material) and section 9 (gambling and betting odds), should be sent to the Advertising Standards Bureau - <http://www.adstandards.com.au>

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) are mandatory.
